The NCFS Sourcebook series presents articles from past issues of Nineteenth-Century French Studies that are relevant to the upcoming Agrégation de lettres modernes. Information about the series is available at the journal’s website.

The articles listed below are on JSTOR, Project MUSE, or both and are available at libraries subscribing to the journal on these services. If you do not have library access to the journal through JSTOR or Project MUSE, you have several other reading options. JSTOR’s Register and Read program allows you to read up to three articles every two weeks for free. JSTOR also offers a fee-based program, JPASS, that allows unlimited reading plus the ability to download and print articles. Individual articles are available for purchase on Project MUSE; “buy” buttons are present on article pages.
